

Key

- P Car park
-  Toilets and baby-changing facilities
-  Accessible toilet
-  Café (seasonal)
-  Steep slope
-  Viewpoint

--- Footpaths

■ National Trust land

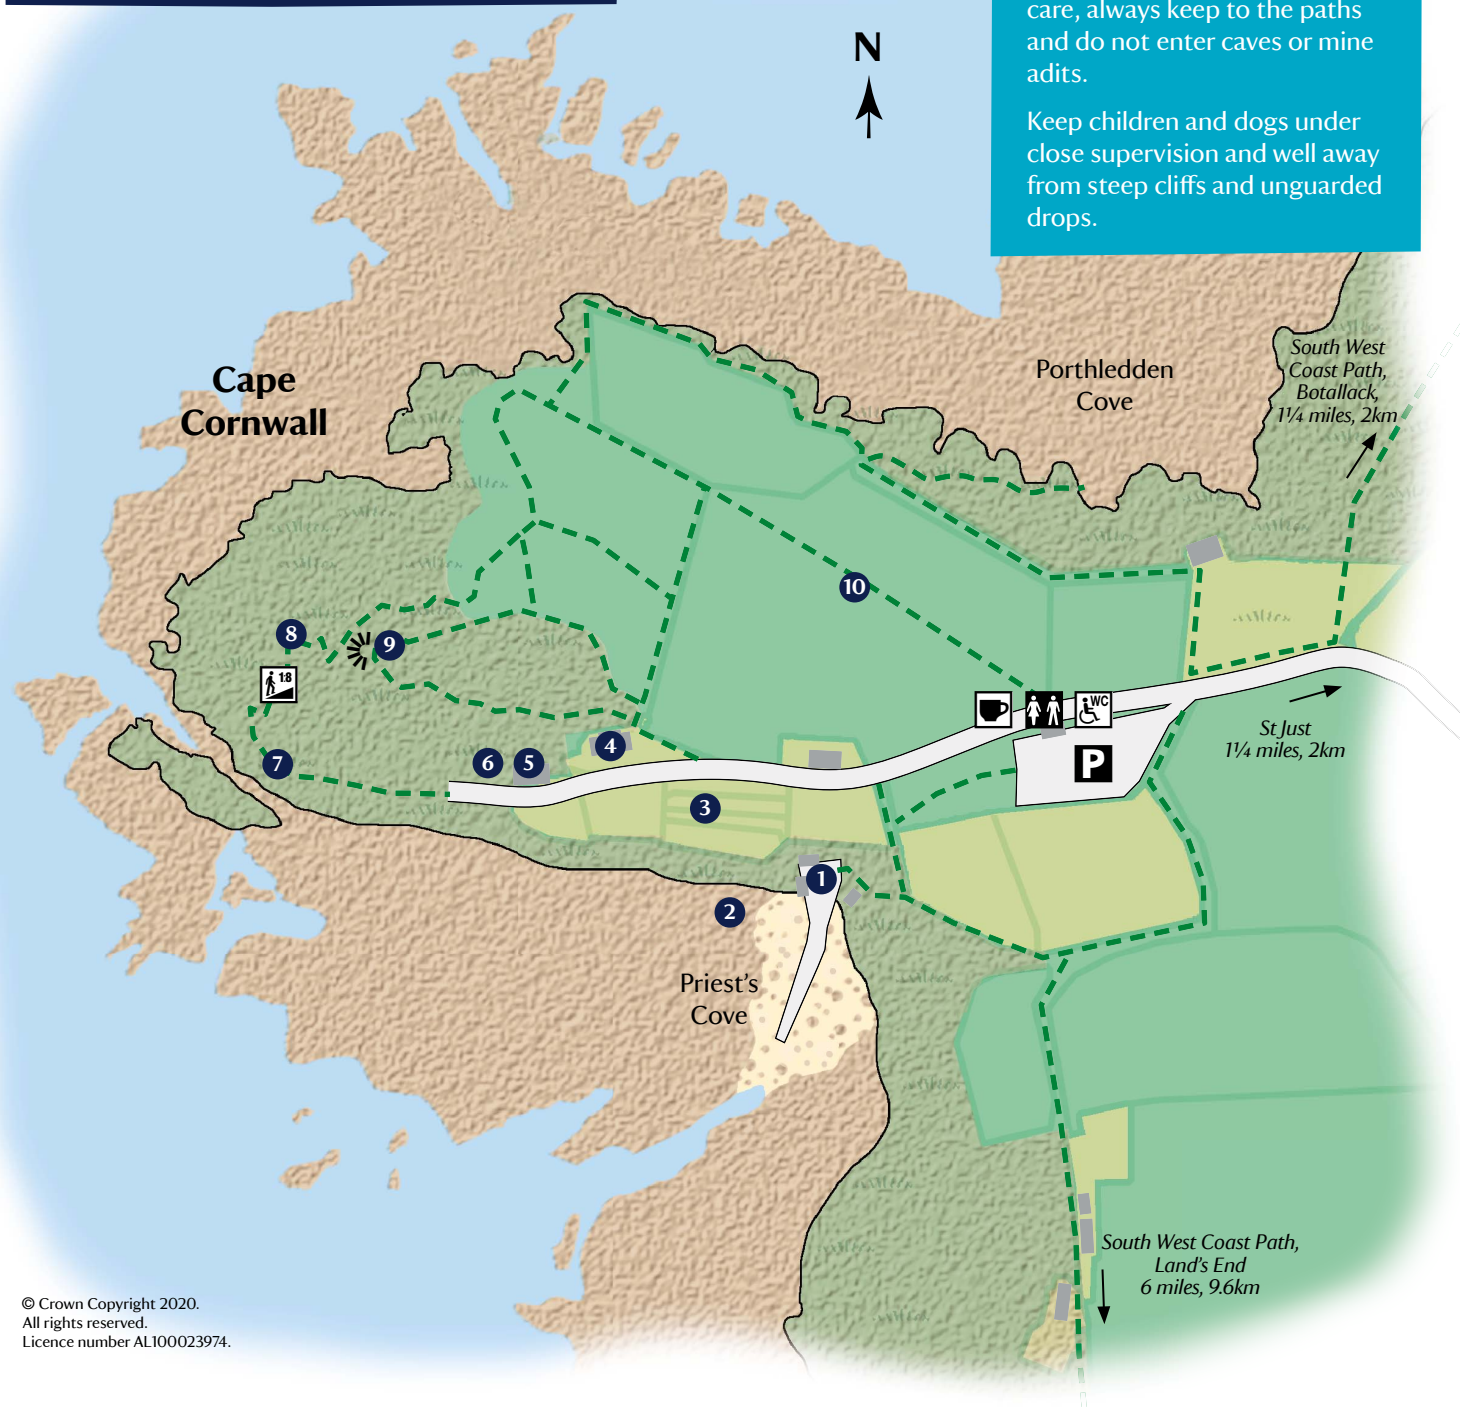

Sites of interest

- 1 Priest's Cove slipway and net stores
- 2 Rock-cut tidal swimming pool
- 3 Site of 19th-century tin-dressing floors and 1908 terraced gardens and glasshouses
- 4 Former Count House (private)
- 5 Former winding engine boiler house (private)
- 6 Site of winding engine house
- 7 Site of pumping engine house
- 8 National Coastwatch lookout
- 9 Chimney stack for boiler house
- 10 St Helen's Oratory

Cape Cornwall mine in the 1860s

Cape Cornwall

The Tin Coast is dotted with mine shafts and the ruins of industrial buildings. Please take care, always keep to the paths and do not enter caves or mine adits.

Keep children and dogs under close supervision and well away from steep cliffs and unguarded drops.