

Spring into nature this Easter at Attingham

As spring wakes up the wildlife, plants and flowers across the park, join us at Attingham during the Easter Holidays for a whole host of spring inspired activities including the popular Cadbury Easter Egg Hunts, Geocaching in the Park, and Spring Crafts.

On days where we haven't got an event, create your own self-led adventure and see if you can tick off any of our '50 Things to do before you're 11¾' activities. Pick up your free scrapbook from Visitor Reception.

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
				Good Friday 30 March Cadbury Easter Egg Hunt	Easter Saturday 31 March Cadbury Easter Egg Hunt	Easter Sunday 1 April Cadbury Easter Egg Hunt
Easter Monday 2 April Cadbury Easter Egg Hunt		4 April Get Geocaching	5 April Wild Times: back to nature
	10 April Spring Crafts	11 April Get Geocaching	12 April Wild Times: back to nature

Can't wait until the Easter Weekend for the Cadbury Easter Egg Hunt?

We'll be holding an early Cadbury Easter Egg Hunt the weekend before on Saturday 24 and Sunday 24 March. Turn over for more details!

For more information on events and activities including prices and times please turn over. Standard admission charges will also apply for non-member of the National Trust.

Pre-booking essential for Wild Times. For full event details visit www.nationaltrust.org.uk/attingham-park/whats-on

Cadbury Easter Egg Hunt

Early Egg Hunt Fun: Saturday 24 and Sunday 25 March, 10am – 4pm, £2.50 per child (includes Cadbury chocolate prize).

Can't wait for the Easter Weekend? Try our trails before the holiday rush, but will you be able to save your chocolatey prize?

Easter Weekend Egg Hunt Fun: Friday 30 March – Monday 2 April, 10am – 4pm, £2.50 per child, (includes Cadbury chocolate prize).

Enjoy exploring the Attingham woods as they spring into life after the cold winter, follow our trail to find all the clues and receive your chocolatey prize at the end.

Get Geocaching

Wednesday 4 and 11 April, 10.30am-4pm, £4 per device (for 90 minutes hire).

Hire a device to hunt out our geocaches and tick off number 49 on the list of 50 things to do before you're 11¾. Specialists from Cotswold Outdoor will be on hand to show you the ropes. Limited number of devices, first come, first served.

Wild Times: back to nature

Thursday 5 and 12 April, 10am –4pm, (timed sessions at intervals) £5 per child.

Leave the screens and technology behind and join the WildLife Survival school at Attingham. This activity is suitable for children aged 5-11 years old, accompanied by an adult. Sessions will take place at 10am, 11am, 12pm, 2pm, and 3pm on each day. Places are limited for each session and should be booked in advance via the WildLife Survival School at <http://wildlifesurvivalschool.nutickets.com>

Spring Crafts

Tuesday 10 April, 11am–3pm, £2.50 to take part (includes up to 3 crafts)

Have an egg-cellent time at Attingham and get crafty at our drop in Spring Crafts. A variety of spring themed crafts including egg cup decorating, mask making and flower making will be available.

Don't forget to pickup your free 50 Things scrapbook from Visitor Reception

You'll find the full list of challenges, hints and tips on how to complete them, and a place on each page to record your achievements inside the scrapbook!

When you visit Attingham, have a go at geocaching or take part in a Cadbury Easter Egg Hunt you're helping to keep Attingham a special place for future generations. Thank you for your support!

Events were correct at the time of going to print but are subject to change and numbers for some of the listed activities are limited. The National Trust is a registered charity no 205846. Attingham Park, Atcham, Shrewsbury SY4 4TP. www.nationaltrust.org.uk/attingham-park