In the Gardens

Belton Remembers

March to December

Discover what life was like for the soldiers in the First World War at Belton Park Camp.

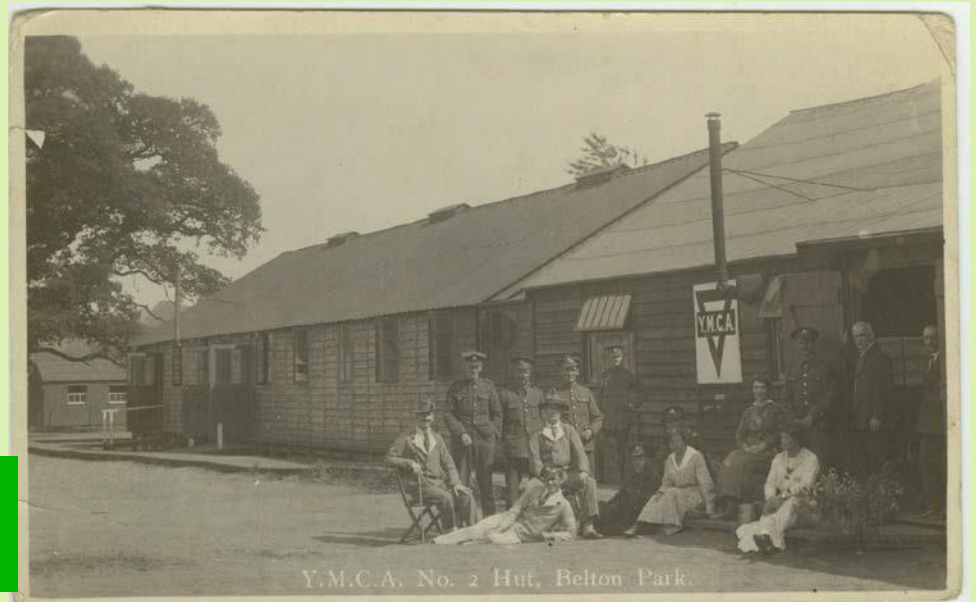

No matter if they were training before heading to the Front or recuperating in the military hospital, many found respite in Belton's gardens.

Using poetry written at and historic photographs of Belton Park, your students will be able to create their own poetry inspired by the gardens.

Optional extra: Take a walk in the parkland to see the landscape clues of the Camp.

Workshop: 2 hours
Up to 60 students
£3 per student

Download a 'Belton Remembers: Case Study Pack' from the website.
