

Key

Car park

Toilets and baby-changing facilities

Accessible toilet

Shop

Refreshments

Viewpoint of the Crowns

Footpaths

National Trust land

Sites of interest

- 1 Count House workshop
- 2 Count House
- 3 Count House holiday cottage
- 4 Smithy
- 5 Allen's shaft (1985)
- 6 1900s power plant
- 7 8 1900s tin-dressing floors
- 9 Calciner
- 10 Flue from calciner to labyrinth
- 11 Arsenic labyrinth
- 12 Arsenic chimney stack
- 13 Crowns winding engine house
- 14 Crowns pumping engine house
- 15 16 1860s tin-dressing floors

Botallack

The Tin Coast is dotted with mine shafts and the ruins of industrial buildings. Please take care, always keep to the paths and do not enter caves or mine adits.

Keep children and dogs under close supervision and away from steep cliffs and unguarded drops.

Please don't climb on the mining remains, including the arsenic labyrinth.

