Churchill's Chartwell (1.5 Hours) Who was Churchill? Where is Chartwell? Why are they important? Pupils will explore these questions, putting their historical skills to the test to find their own answers.
Churchill The Artist (1.5 hours) Learn how art helped Churchill through difficult times in his life. Pupils will explore the places that are special to them and have a go at their own landscape paintings.
Churchill The Leader (1.5 hours) Using drama and role play we will explore the qualities that make a successful leader. For KS2 pupils we will look at creating our own persuasive speeches.

Please indicate any special educational needs or physical access requirements. This helps our staff to plan sessions that are engaging and inclusive. All information is welcomed or, if you'd prefer to talk through any requirements, give us a call on 01732 861140.

Terms and Conditions

Please note that school staff are expected to take part in sessions and are responsible for supervising behaviour in line with your school policy. All our learning sessions are free of charge with resources provided, however, cancelled sessions will incur a charge to cover staff time and resources. Should a cancelled session be re-booked on an alternative date the charge will be waived.

Cancellation within 30 days of visit: £50

Cancellation within 14 days of visit: £100

Seven days or under: £150
