

Finding your way around

Ground floor

First floor

Welcome to the home of the Massingberd family. Gunby Hall was built for Sir William Massingberd in 1700. The Massingberd family lived at Gunby until 1967. The house was tenanted from 1967 until 2012 but is now under the direct management of the National Trust.

Areas not open to visitors
Do take photos and videos but no flash photography in the house please. Please leave large bags and rucksacks with the room guide at the house entrance door. Speak to a member of staff if you want to use the Gunby wheelchair or the Gunby walker in the house.

You're welcome to take this leaflet home, or leave it in the tray in the Gunby basement so it can be reused.
