

- 1 Visitor Centre
Toilets
Café and shop
Introduction
Elgar's Study
- 2 Sound garden
- 3 Public bridleway
- 4 Cottage garden
- 5 The Firs,
birthplace cottage

Five things not to be missed

- The display about Elgar's work in the Visitor Centre rotunda
- Hearing Elgar's music on the introductory film
- The quintessential English cottage garden
- The Firs – birthplace of Sir Edward Elgar
- Elgar's study – discover what it took to write a symphony

For families

- Discover your musical talents in the Sound Garden
- Pick up a wildlife spotter's sheet from visitor reception

Dogs on leads are very welcome in the visitor centre and gardens, sorry not in the cottage.