

Shakespeare's Globe – Elizabethan Experience Tour – Thursday 22nd February 2018

42 members attended. We departed on time and arrived at The Southwark Rose Hotel (Ibis) at 10.45 hours for tea and coffee. It was a nice surprise that we were also offered free croissant, pain au chocolat and cakes, all for £3.00 per person.

After coffee we had a short and gentle stroll to the Globe Theatre. Due to number limitations we were split into two groups taking turns to enjoy the Rose Theatre and The Bankside tours.

We had an extended lunch between 12.30 and 3pm, which gave members time to visit the Tate Modern, the Borough Market or to stroll the banks of The Thames and to lunch as they saw fit.

At 3.45 pm we gathered together as a group to watch an Elizabethan dressing demonstration which was enjoyed by all.

We boarded the coach at 4.15 pm and arrived back in Liphook on time.

Chris Wright 22nd February 2018