

South Cheshire National Trust Association Events 2018/2019

Date	Type of Event	Subject
2018
Th 20 Sep	Meeting	Talk – “Tatton Park Gardens”. Janet Bradshaw gives an insight into these beautiful gardens and their use as an educational resource.
Th 25 Oct	Meeting	AGM (including members voting for annual NT Donations) & Talk – “The Danny”. Les Green and Bon Cannell tell us about the challenging restoration of the last steam tugboat in the country including an insight into its art-deco design, 1903 engineering and survival. Also Little Moreton Hall Pop-up Shop selling National Trust Christmas cards and gifts.
Th 29 Nov	Meeting	NT Donations presentations & Talk – “Army Reserve Medical Corps”. Eric Hunter talks about the Army Reserve Medical Corps and his experiences serving with them. Also Little Moreton Hall Pop-up Shop selling National Trust Christmas cards and gifts.
Mon 17 Dec	Meal	Christmas Lunch for members at Hunters Lodge Hotel, Crewe. Advanced booking essential – booking form in members’ newsletter.
2019
Th 31 Jan	Meeting	Talk – “Entertaining the Troops – December 1914”. Steve Bartlett using original first hand stories from those involved tells the story off the first professional touring company to entertain the troops on the Western Front in the First World War.
Th 28 Feb	Meeting	Talk – “New Orleans to New York”. Roger Browne, with the aid of his portable piano, explores the musical common ground between jazz and musical theatre.
Th. 28 Mar	Meeting	Talk – “Santa Evita”. Hazel Griffiths talks about the life and legacy of Eva Peron – Saint or Sinner?
Th 25 Apr	Meeting	Talk – “Development of the Chemical Industries in Runcorn & Widnes”. Dr Diana Leach uses her personal recollections as a “child” of ICI and family connections to tell the story of the local salt and chemical industry.
Th 30 May	Meeting	Talk – “Joseph Paxton – The Busiest Man in England”. Danny Wells tells how from a humble background Paxton became the Head Gardener at Chatsworth at 23 years of age.
We also have a regular Luncheon Club, Car &amp; Coach Day Trips, occasional Walks and Short-Break Holidays planned for members.		