

Aberconwy House

Castle Street, Conwy LL32 8AY

T 01492 592246 F 01492 564818

E aberconwyhouse@nationaltrust.org.uk

14th-century merchant's house

Note Parking at local car parks around town

Building 10 steps to entrance.

Alternative accessible entrance, via internal staircase from shop. Stairs to other floors

Other features First floor:

kitchen: lath and plaster partition; two part cupboard – inlaid date; carving on chest; bread crate; butter churn; rushlight holders; guffering iron; pewter plates. Dining room: window sill and window (small depth of wall); front of Moses dresser. Second floor: Great Loft: beam structure; dole cupboard; two part cupboard; chest – carving; small chest – locks and padlocks; rush light holder; Black Jack; armour – breast plate; large pewter plates. Two settles can be sat on. Passage: press on landing; small stone silled window. Cellar: 2 arc topped chest; beam over fireplace

Chirk Castle

Chirk, Wrexham LL14 5AF

T 01691 777701 F 01691 774706 E chirkcastle@nationaltrust.org.uk

Magnificent medieval fortress of the Welsh Marches

State rooms    Adam

Tower  Gardens

Parking for Blue Badge holders in main car park. Ten yards from visitor centre. Wheelchair-accessible transfer to castle

Accessible toilet at Home Farm and in castle courtyard

State rooms Seven steps to State room entrance. Wheelchair stairclimber available to first floor (13 stone weight limit), ring to check availability. Stairs with handrail to other floors. Access restricted to one wheelchair user at any one time. Adam Tower only accessible on ground floor. Laundry's and Servants Hall accessible

Grounds Loose gravel paths. Some visitors may require assistance from their companion. Estate has hard standing paths along 2km woodland walk, route follows the natural slopes of the landscape. Three wheelchairs available, booking advisable

Other features A long list of objects and braille guide. Virtual tour accessible from castle courtyard

Accessible toilet adjacent to tea-room

Building Level access to the Bothy tea-room can be opened on request

Grounds Much of the lower parts of the garden can be accessed with wheelchairs and pushchairs. Some visitors may require assistance from their companion. Map of accessible route and wheelchair are both available from reception. Paths in the meadow may become difficult to negotiate after heavy rainfall. Some of the paths in the upper reaches of the garden have steps and some are quite steep in places. Video presentation in Bothy

Other features Wooded valley full of bird-life, a gurgling stream and rustling bamboos. Highly scented plants and flowers and all the smells of the woodland

Conwy Suspension Bridge

Conwy LL32 8LD

T 01492 573282 F 01492 564818

E conwybridge@nationaltrust.org.uk

Elegant suspension bridge and toll-keeper's house

Building Grounds

Parking limited parking during day by adjoining bridge

Building Level entrance. Ground floor accessible

Grounds Steps to lower terraces

Dinefwr Park and Castle

Llandeilo, Carmarthenshire SA19 6RT

T 01558 824512 F 01558 825925 E dinefwr@nationaltrust.org.uk

12th-century Welsh castle, historic house and 18th-century landscape park, enclosing a medieval deer park

Parking drop-off point

Accessible toilet in house and at visitor reception

Building Ramped entrance. 1 wheelchair, booking essential.

Ground floor accessible. Stairs to first and basement floors.
Step steps to basement

Grounds Long level boardwalk to mill pond. Some walks/areas with steep inclines and uneven surfaces. Garden: Some steps but access to top of garden possible via path and ramp from back door of house

Other features Carved oak staircase; stone pillars; items in basement. Also Boardwalk through a bog wood for a different sensory experience

Dolaucothi Gold Mines

Pumsaint, Llanwrda, Carmarthenshire SA19 8US

T 01558 650177 E dolaucothi@nationaltrust.org.uk

Gold mines in use from Roman times to the 20th century

Parking drop-off point

Accessible toilet facilities are accessible by means of a ramp

Building Ramped entrance.

Audiovisual/video. Access to Long Adit on level ground but over gravel floor. Access to part of mine is possible (advisable to book in advance), gravel floor can be difficult for powered mobility vehicles. Access to Roman and Victorian mines via 70 steps

Erddig

Wrexham LL13 0YT

T 01978 355314 F 01978 313333 E erddig@nationaltrust.org.uk

Atmospheric house, featuring 485-hectare (1,200-acre) country park and formal walled garden

Note Unfortunately no vehicles can be admitted beyond ticket office other than mobility scooters and wheelchairs. The car park is 75 yards from the House

Exhibition Room Grounds

Parking designated Blue Badge parking in main car park which is 75 yards from ticket office. Drop-off point at 'Coach Halt' 20 yards from ticket office

Accessible toilet available by tea garden

Building Accessible drop-off point. Ramped entrance. Access across rough gravel. 3 wheelchairs. Induction loop in ticket office, restaurant and shop, lower ground floor accessible. Stairs to other floors. Audiovisual/video, model of house on lower ground floor. Virtual tour available in House

Grounds Grass lawns, loose gravel paths with even terrain. Cobbled pathways in outbuildings area. Access map available from ticket office at entrance. Accessible horse drawn carriage rides. Some visitors may require assistance from their companion

Other features Items from 'Educational Boxes' in Family Rooms (please ask Stewards); carved oak furniture in Servants Passage and Failures Gallery; furniture and pewter in Servants Hall; panelling. Prior notice is appreciated. Lift to restaurant. Braille guides available

Gower: Rhossili Shop and Visitor Centre

Coastguard Cottages, Rhossili, Gower, Swansea SA3 1PR

T 01792 390707 E rhossili.shop@nationaltrust.org.uk

Large National Trust shop and Visitor Centre set amongst spectacular countryside and beaches

Parking drop-off point only, public car park 50 yards with ramped access

Accessible toilet Rhossili car park, RADAR key in shop (not National Trust)

Shop Ramped entrance. Visitor Centre on first floor. Stairs only

Grounds Standard road surface immediately adjacent to shop and visitor centre offering great views of the bay. The cliff path to Worm's Head is partly accessible grass and hard gravel with steep slopes, undulating terrain and sheer cliffs. Access to the beach is via cliff steps only

The Kymin

The Round House, The Kymin, Monmouth, Monmouthshire NP25 3SF

T 01600 719241

E kymin@nationaltrust.org.uk

Landmark hill topped by two interesting Georgian buildings

Parking separate parking, 5 yards. Drop-off point

Building Grounds

Parking drop-off point

Accessible toilet in car park

Building Level entrance. Step from main entrance to hall

Grounds Steep slopes, some steps, uneven and narrow paths

Other features Interesting scents

Powis Castle and Garden

1952

Welshpool, Powys SY21 8RF

T 01938 551944 (Infoline). 01938 551929 F 01938 554336

E powiscastle@nationaltrust.org.uk

Medieval castle rising dramatically above the celebrated garden

Note Contact in advance. Visitors, including members, need a ticket from visitor reception

Building

Grounds

Parking separate parking.
Drop-off point

Accessible toilet near garden entrance and in the formal garden

Building Many steps to entrance, wheelchair access on the ground floor only. Very steep staircase to Castle and Clive Museum, no wheelchair access into the Clive Museum

Grounds Map available of the accessible route. Terraced with steps in some areas. PMV access to top terrace only due to very steep gradients on some paths. Access into the formal gardens can be arranged by telephoning the property in advance

Other features Please telephone to arrange special tour with a member of staff. Entrance Hall: marble floor, carved woodwork (pineapples) on Grand Staircase, inlay on stairs, chests. State Dining Room: panelling, radiator covers, warming oven on back stairs. Library: caned chairs. Oak Drawing Room: panelling, door furniture. Gate Way: picket post. State Bedroom: door furniture and window latches. Long Gallery: circular marble table (mosaic), Renaissance carved chest, marble hand, owl on statue, ebony chairs and Pietra Doura table. Balcony Banisters and carving on door surrounds. Gloves should please be worn when touching marble hand and owl

Skenfrith Castle

Skenfrith, near Abergavenny, Monmouthshire NP7 8UH

T 01874 625515 E skenfrithcastle@nationaltrust.org.uk

Remains of an early 13th-century fortress

Building

Building 12 steps to entrance with handrail

Other features Church clock chimes quarters and strikes hours

Stackpole

Stackpole, near Pembroke, Pembrokeshire

T 01646 661359 F 01646 661639 E stackpole@nationaltrust.org.uk

Beautiful and varied stretch of the Pembrokeshire coast

Note Contact property for information leaflet.

3 miles of lakeside and woodland paths suitable for wheelchair users.

Access to Broadhaven

South beach for wheelchair users via lakeside footpath from Stackpole Outdoor Learning

     Building  Grounds

Parking Stackpole Quay area and tea-room accessible from car park. Broadhaven South – parking on headland available

Accessible toilet at Stackpole Quay, Broadhaven South and Bosherton car park. Also at Stackpole Outdoor Learning and, for woodlands, in Mencap Walled Garden (open weekdays 10–4)

Building Ramped access, all public areas fully accessible at Stackpole Outdoor Learning

Grounds Map of accessible route. Two angling points for wheelchair users at Bosherton Lakes, telephone for details

Other features Sounds of bird-life and all the scents of the woodland

Tudor Merchant's House

    1937

Quay Hill, Tenby, Pembrokeshire SA70 7BX

T 01834 842279 E tudormerchantshouse@nationaltrust.org.uk

Late 15th-century town house

Note No parking available at property. Very limited parking in streets within town walls apart from July and August, when parking is in pay and display car parks only or via park and ride

Building

Building Three steps to entrance. Ground floor has uneven floors. Stairs to other floors. Spiral staircase with narrow treads

Other features Replica furniture on ground floor and first floor can be touched and sat on. Spices and wares in the merchant's shop can be picked up and smelt. Small herb garden open, weather permitting. Childrens costumes to try on and replica Tudor toys which can be handled

Tŷ Mawr Wybrnant

Penmachno, Betws-y-Coed, Conwy LL25 0HJ

T 01690 760213 F 01690 710678

E tymawrwybrnant@nationaltrust.org.uk

Traditional stone-built upland 16th-century farmhouse

Building*Grounds

Parking designated parking, 20 yards. Car park adjoining property off council-maintained road

Accessible toilet across bridge from property

Building Level entrance.

Ground floor has uneven floors, slate flagstones. Steep wooden staircase with roped handrail to other floor.

Interpretation panels within exhibition room. Seating in exhibition room

Grounds Uneven paths, partly accessible

