Above all please enjoy your visit.

Information is given at the start of the trails. Routes are open as some are only open at selected times. Check to see which marks can be clearly seen as coloured arrows on the surface of the road. The map overleaf shows the way-marked visitor routes. The way-marked visitor routes (except Lab 1) is strictly out of bounds to all visitors unless otherwise directed (see map).

- The AWRE site is out of bounds to all except an adult whilst on site.
- Children should be accompanied by an adult whilst on site.
- Do not cross any barriers marked either NO ENTRY or NO ACCESS.
- Any person straying from the visitor routes is at danger from unexploded ordnance. The site has been surface cleared but it is possible for buried ordnance to work its way to the surface.
- Children should be accompanied by an adult whilst on site.
- Very fragile habitats and wildlife can be easily damaged and
- Please help us and ensure your safety by keeping to the way-marked routes.

Staying safe on Orford Ness

National Trust