

Naturist Beach Code

Naturists don't need this code but not everyone knows how to be a naturist.

Please:

- Only the dress code is different
- Avoid being a nuisance
- Respect people's space
- Do not be an exhibitionist
- Avoid confronting or approaching textiles
- Any sexual activity is just as unwelcome and just as criminal as in any other public place
- Naturists are a trusting and trustworthy bunch but the criminals know that, so safeguard your valuables
- Always report crime

In England and Wales, naturism in appropriate places is legal but breaches of the code can be offences and penalties in recent years have included fines, ASBOs, imprisonment and lifetime bans from all naturist beaches. Naturist use of the beach will also be put at risk.

Who to phone:

999 - Crime in progress or person in danger

See phone book for non-urgent calls to the police

Any problems? Please tell us! If we don't know about it then we can't do anything about it.

Thank you.
